Senior Private Equity Executive Joins LP Capital to Lead the Firm's Boston Office

Boston, Massachusetts (December 20, 2013) – LP Capital Advisors, LLC (“LPCA”) announced today that Christopher T. Farrington, a seasoned private equity executive, has joined the Firm as a Director in the Boston, Massachusetts office.

Mr. Farrington brings over 20 years of Wall St. and private equity experience including directing the Domestic Private Equity Program at MetLife Investments and leading the investment efforts at emerging manager specialist Centinela Capital Partners. Chris received his undergraduate degree from Duke University and Masters of Finance from Columbia University.

“Having Chris join our Firm brings our East Coast practice the leadership needed for our growing team and enhances the excellent service level that our clients are accustomed to,” said Donn Cox, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, “we have known Chris as a valued member of the LP community for over 10 years and are truly excited to have him as part of our leadership team.”

“I am very excited to be joining LP Capital Advisors and collaborating with my new colleagues to enhance the firm’s resources and capabilities for our clients”, said Mr. Farrington. “I have a tremendous respect for Donn and the entire team for building an outstanding firm committed to delivering the highest quality solutions to its clients while maintaining an ethical reputation of the highest regard.”

Mr. Cox indicated that Mr. Farrington will focus his efforts on managing the Firm’s East Coast client-service and advisory activities as well as its European research activities on behalf of LPCA’s clients.
